FRANK KITSON SOLD.

Cantillon Disposes of the Veteran Pitcher to New York Americans, Manager Cantillon yesterday sold Frank Kitson to the New York Americans, and the veteran player joined the Highlanders after the afternoon game. No other player figured in the deal, the only conideration being a sum of money. Cantillon wanted Griffith to trade a player, but the New Yorkers had nothing to offer

Kitson came to Washington from Detroit, but he was never much of a suc-cess here, and several efforts were made to dispose of the player, but Griffith was the only club willing to take him.

Seconds Throw Up Sponge in Fight with Schreck.

TWENTY ROUNDS OF MILLING

Tonopah Battle Lively Despite Fact that Hart Receives Injury in the Sixth Round-Louisville Boxer Is the Aggressor-Hart Nearly Put Out in the Sixth and in the Twentieth.

Tonopah, Nev., May 30.-After twenty ounds of lively fighting Mike Schreck won the fight here to-day in the early part of the twenty-first round through Marvin Hart's seconds tossing up the sponge. This surrender amazed the crowd as Hart had more than held his own from the outset, but it was subs explained that Hart broke his right hand in the sixth round. Hart was the aggressor from the tap of the gong, and he seemed to have the ber of the milling except in a few rounds. In one of the early rounds Hart brough blood from Schreck's mouth and landed heavy blow on the right cheek.

This woke Mike up, and in the sixth he dropped Marvin with a right uppercut to the chin. Hart took a count of six and rose very groggy. Mike could have finished him if he had kept cool, but he Totals ..... 511 45 18 2 Totals ..... 7 12 45 18 3 failed in his swings to the jaw, and Hart through the barrier. The barrier was and was witnessed by a large holiday crowd. Curnane pitched for Hyattsville, but the fielding back of him was indifferent. With all the bases occupied in the fourth inning. Bergman cracked out a two-bagger, clearing the bases, and practically wen the game for Brentwood.

Darnall went behind the bat for Hyattsville with a broken finger, and his grit was applauded.

Brentwood has won every game thus far played in the league, and is putting up a fast article of ball. Barhardt was effective with men on the sacks. The score:

Mount St. Joseph College, at Baltimore, Defeated-5 to 3.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Baltimore, Md., May 30.—Mount St. Joseph's College went down to defeat by the strong Gallaudet College team, of Washington, in a fast game this afternoon, at Irvington, 5 to 3. Most of the scoring on both sides was made on errors at critical times.

Teal pitched a good game, but the support given him was very bad. The best play was made by Smith. When three men were on bases a hot drive from the bat was about three feet over his double play unassisted. Score:
